Secretary of State Waltermire introduced the Honorable Daniel Shea, Associate Justice of the Montana Supreme Court, who administered the following oath:

"I do solemnly swear that I will support, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Montana, and that I will discharge the duties of my office as representative with fidelity. SO HELP ME GOD."

Thereupon, having presented their certificates of election, the House members subscribed the foregoing oath.

The Secretary of State called for nominations for Speaker of the House of Representatives. Representative Vincent nominated Representative Dan Kemmis, District No. 94; Representative Ramirez nominated Representative Robert L. Marks, District No. 80. Nominations were closed and the following roll call votes were cast:

For Representative Kemmis: Abrams, Addy, Bachini, Bardanouve, Bengtson, Brand, D. Brown, J. Brown, Connelly, Daily, Darko, Dozier, Driscoll, Farris, Hammond, Hand, Hansen, Harper, Harrington, Hart, Holliday, Howe, Jacobsen, J. Jensen, Jones, Kemmis, Keyser, Kitselman, Lory, Miller, Mueller, Nordtvedt, Phillips, Ramirez, Ryan, Sales, Sands, Schultz, Seifert, Smith, Solberg, Stobie, Swift, Switzer, Thoft, Underdal, Vinger, Wallin, Winslow. Total 45.

Secretary of State Waltermire announced to the members of the 48th Legislature that the results of the roll call vote showed that 55 members voted for Representative Dan Kemmis for Speaker, and 45 members voted for Representative Bob Marks for Speaker.

Secretary Waltermire therefore declared Representative Dan Kemmis of District No. 94 duly elected Speaker of the House of Representatives for the 48th Legislature.

Representatives Vincent and Marks escorted the newly-elected Speaker, Dan Kemmis, to the rostrum where he was formally introduced by the Secretary of State and presented with the Speaker's gavel. At this time the Speaker delivered the following address:

Members of the House of Representatives and their families and friends; Chief Clerk Owens and your staff; Sergeant-at-Arms Wallem and your staff; and last, but absolutely and unmistakably first; to the citizens of Montana:

Welcome to the 48th sitting of the Montana House of Representatives.

I have no words to express how profound an honor it is to be chosen Speaker of this House. I can only hope that in serving the office I can return to it some small measure of the honor which you have granted me.

I am deeply attached to this House and this chamber, not least because of the number of good friends I have made here. To my old friends, welcome back.

To the new members, I on behalf of all the veterans, extend a very sincere welcome. I predict, for most of you, the most interesting winter of your lives. I am very impressed by the obvious high quality of this freshman class, and I look forward to seeing your talents blend with the proven abilities of the old-timers.

To the families of all the members: I suspect you are feeling a little pride in your wife or husband, son or daughter, mother or father, and you should. You should be proud of yourselves as well, because your help, support, encouragement and forbearance have made it possible for them to be here. I know well the sacrifices which this service imposes on you. If my office can ever do anything to help any of you, please let us know. We are at your service.

To the staff of the House: I am a little abashed at welcoming you, because I know so well that it is only through your truly devoted efforts that any of us are in a position to extend welcomes at all today. From the work I have already done with you, I have grown to like and respect each of you, and I look forward to deepening that friendship as only labor for the common good can bond people together.

To the members of the Fourth Estate: thank goodness you never need a welcome to come, but you are very welcome indeed. Without your professional efforts, the people would be denied their constitutional right to know what is happening here. I appreciate the work you do.

It is to those people, to all the citizens of Montana, that I extend the last and warmest welcome. All the rest of us are here for one purpose only; and that is to do your work. The members of the House just took an oath to uphold the Montana Constitution. I would like to read what I consider to be the very soul of that Constitution:

ARTICLE II

DECLARATION OF RIGHTS

Section 1. All political power is vested in and derived from the people. All government of right originates with the people, is founded upon their will only, and is instituted solely for the good of the whole.

Section 2. The people have the exclusive right of governing themselves as a free, sovereign, and independent state.

I am afraid that our citizens are gradually losing that sense of themselves as a free, sovereign and self-governing people. Increasingly alienated from government, and urged by demagoguery into ever deeper alienation, they run the risk of abdicating control of their own destiny to powers that care nothing for the general good.

If there is one personal goal that I have for this 48th Montana Legislature, it is to reverse in some small part that process of alienation. My hope is that in April the people of Montana might have increased their confidence in their right and ability to govern themselves. I will do everything I can in presiding over this House to accomplish that aim.

People who do not respect themselves cannot govern themselves. I am convinced that the more our citizens respect themselves and one another, the more prepared they will be for self-government. And respect is like leaven; once introduced it extends itself. As leaders, we here have a special responsibility to practice the politics of respect—to recognize that people with differing ideas are essentially good and honest and deserving of our respect. We will have battles here, some of them quite fierce, and I am convinced that they are a necessary and beneficial part of the process. But I hope, in all our battles, that we never lose sight of the fact that those on the other side are good and honest people, and that we all are engaged in the same enterprise, which is doing the people's work.

I will do my best to make mutual respect and accessibility to the people the hallmarks of this session. And I thank you once again for the opportunity to do that work in that way with you.

STATE OF THE STATE MESSAGE
GOVERNOR TED SCHWINDEN
Forty-eighth Legislative Assembly

January 7, 1983

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, members of the Forty-Eighth Legislature and people of Montana. The state of our state is one of uncertainty. National unemployment rates are at post-World War II highs, bankruptcies are a daily occurrence, and thousands of individuals and businesses are struggling to survive. Each day's news brings grim reminders to Montana and forty-nine other states that our fortunes are closely tied to the national economy.

Oregon's legislature, for example, met three times in special session in 1982 and raised more than $300 million in revenues to pare down a whopping deficit. Idaho expects a $47 million deficit by the end of this fiscal year. Minnesota is taking drastic steps to prevent a $312.5 million deficit, increasing both income and sales taxes. Montana, with an anticipated surplus of $22 million for FY'83, looks good by comparison. Yet, the prospect of 50,000 unemployed Montanans this winter, combined with declining state revenues, gives little cause for cheer. Cautious optimism has given way to just plain caution.

Nationally, New Federalism is a cinder in the ashes of federal reform, and President Reagan's 1980 campaign promise of a "New Beginning" lies dormant under a national deficit now expected to approach $200 billion this fiscal year. Economic recovery may be "just around the corner," but little solid evidence exists to support that optimistic prediction. Montana's actions over these next few months must reflect the national economic realities. Montana in 1983-85 must not become the Minnesota of 1982-1983 — a state with deficits and taxes increasing, and services declining.

I intend to keep Montana on the path of fiscal sanity. The executive branch, with significant help from the private sector Governor's Council on Management, has acted to hold down costs. We freed up scarce dollars by bringing government growth under control, by tightening our belts, by streamlining state operations, by eliminating duplication and waste. The Executive Budget confirms my 1981 State of the State commitment to a 'cost-conscious and people sensitive' state government. And, the Executive Budget reflects a practical and prudent reaction to the national realities.

Given our economic circumstances, where do we go from here? We go forward, with purpose. Chekhov warned that: "If you cry 'Forward! . . .' make plain in what direction to go." It is imperative that we work together to move Montana in the same direction — towards a healthy, diversified, growing economy. Although we are surrounded by economic uncertainty, we cannot and must not allow the state to stagnate as we wait for national economic recovery.

In 1981, we began to lay a foundation for economic development. We created a Department of Commerce. We strengthened the relationship between the public and private sectors. We improved state government by making it more responsive to the people served.

In 1982, we expanded our commitment to a healthy economy. We solicited new ideas and challenged old assumptions. We continued our efforts to show Montana business that we mean business! And, we listened. From street-corner conversations — capital for a day visits — polling — advisory committees — the message came through loud and clear. Montanans said, "Put our people to work!"

Those of us who have jobs today can be thankful, but we must not forget those who do not. Montana's unemployment rate, announced today, continues to climb to a dismal 9.6 percent. But, unemployment is more than grim monthly statistics — it is an assault on human pride and dignity. Forced idleness is an unacceptable condition for Montanans who pride themselves in their proven ability to "get the job done."

"PUT OUR PEOPLE TO WORK" IS A CALL FOR ACTION.

And you and I must heed that call. We can act now by making responsible and timely investments in Montana's future. We can take advantage of lower interest and construction costs to address the repair and reconstruction of Montana's infrastructure. To that end, I urge approval of user fee increases to fund highway construction, and cigarette and liquor tax increases to help fund a $64 million long range building program. The Administration proposals will provide hundreds of meaningful jobs to build highways and needed public facilities when much of our economy is at a standstill. Our proposals would put people to work, building Montana's future at a time when jobs are desperately needed in this state.

Three months ago, I laid out a comprehensive program to Build Montana — a program formulated by concerned Montanans, not by starry-eyed planners in a state capitol conference room. Build Montana was forged by people — people determined to keep this state a place where opportunity and achievement still go hand-in-hand. Over the next four months the group of Montanans gathered in these chambers, whose collective responsibility is to set public policy, will examine and debate the various elements of the Build Montana program. And, you will have the opportunity to put Montanans to work by putting the Build Montana program to work.

Build Montana is an attitude — an aspiration — demanding action. 1981 and 1982 were years of assessment and planning; 1983 and 1984 must be years of action.

BUILD MONTANA IS A CALL TO ACTION:

- * an aggressive economic development effort spearheaded by the Department of Commerce;
- * an unprecedented endeavor to make additional capital available to Montana businesses and to stimulate investment in Montana;
- * an expanded and accelerated program for highway construction, reconstruction and preventive maintenance vital to any long-term economic expansion;
- * a way to strengthen local governments by giving them the financial resources to deal with today's problems and tomorrow's growth.

Local governments have watched their tax base erode over the past decade. It's time we recognized that robbing local governments of essential funds encourages them to raise property taxes or cut local services — unpopular options during these difficult times.

Build Montana is a commitment to continue and expand the efforts we began in 1981 to examine state government's delivery system and make it work better. Through such improvements, we hope to restore public confidence in the governmental system. That is no easy task. It took decades of bureaucratic inefficiency and insensitivity to chisel away the pillar of public confidence. It will take time to rebuild that trust.

Finally, building Montana is caring for people. The Executive Budget reflects tough choices, but it also reflects a determination to meet "people needs." There was no interest powerful enough to mandate budgetary extravagance, and there was no interest so small that it was ignored. Whether it be the University system or a displaced homemakers program to help women return to the job market, the programs we are recommending have a common denominator — helping people. And, with personal budgets strained to the limit, one positive way to help Montanans is to keep down the costs of government.

We do not need a general tax increase. We do not need a sales tax. We do not need an income tax increase. We do need to hold the line.

I support tax relief for our senior citizens, trapped between rising energy costs and fixed incomes. But, I will strongly resist efforts to expand the $11 million tax break the oil industry enjoyed in the current tax year. And I will not condone a budget balanced through the sacrifice of people programs. As the budget battle heats up, the Schwinden administration will continue to be a strong voice for the neglected and abused children in foster care, the elderly on Medicaid and fuel assistance, and the developmentally disabled in community group homes. If we must inevitably take budgetary "risks," let us not take them at the expense of those Montanans who count on us the most, those least able to care for themselves.

I do not envy you your task over the next few months. You have ahead the painful process of allocating scarce resources. I respect the Legislature's right to set its own priorities; priorities which may well differ from the Administration's. I will maintain an open mind — and a sense of humor — as we debate the differences; but I will not stand by and allow Montana's favorable fiscal standing to be nicked-and-dimed to death. I will insist that we maintain a "Black Ink Cushion" — a reasonable and necessary ending fund balance. Montana's 1984-85 budget must not be stained by red ink. If the national economy continues to flounder or if Congress or the Reagan administration shut off federal funds for vital federal/state programs, I will take the executive actions required to maintain Montana's fiscal integrity. If necessary, I will call the Legislature back into session to deal with emergency funding issues.

Since 1981, we have reorganized state government to strengthen our commitment to economic development. We maintained our commitment to preserve and to improve Montana's environment. We successfully defended the coal severance tax. We have carried the message of the crisis in agriculture to a national audience. We instituted an ambitious water development program. We stopped and reversed the growth in state government, and eliminated more than 1,100 state positions! Those actions were not solutions to Montana's economic problems, but they were steps in the right direction. Our Build Montana program is not a complete solution either, but it is a positive step in the direction of economic growth and vitality — a way to prepare Montana to move ahead when "Hard Times" subside and "Good Times" return.

The people of this treasured state want action, not politics as usual; responsibility, not recklessness. And Montanans want progress that sustains and justifies their pride in this state.

The state of our state is one of uncertainty, but that is no excuse for inaction. Hand-wringing and indecision will only prolong the uncertainty. Action will begin to lift Montana out of the economic backwaters and place it in a position to move ahead as the national economy improves.

The 19th century writer, Sydney Smith, once wrote: "It is the greatest of all mistakes to do nothing because you can do only a little. Do what you can." Despite limited resources and an uncertain national economy, our goal for 1983 must be to do what we can. At the very least, it will put us ahead of where we were yesterday. At most, it will lead us to a brighter tomorrow.

Reverend Harper delivered the benediction.

House stood at ease at 2:45 p.m.

House resumed at 3:15 p.m.

A committee from the Senate entered to notify the House that the Senate was prepared to join them in joint session.

Members of the Senate were admitted to the House.

The Legislature being in joint session, Senate President Stephens occupied the Chair.

Senator Hazelbaker moved that the body resolve itself into a joint session to receive the State of the Judiciary Address from the Honorable Frank I. Haswell, Chief Justice of the Montana Supreme Court. Motion carried.

Senator Hazelbaker moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee to notify the Honorable Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Montana Supreme Court that the Legislature is in joint session and ready to receive the State of the Judiciary Address. Motion carried.

The President appointed Senator Turnage and Representative D. Brown.

The committee escorted the members of the Supreme Court to the rostrum.

After being presented to the members of both houses by President Stephens, Chief Justice Haswell gave the following State of the Judiciary Address:

THE STATE OF THE JUDICIARY
by Honorable Frank I. Haswell
Chief Justice, Montana Supreme Court

Thank you Mr. Speaker Kemmis, Mr. President Stephens, Senators and Representatives.

Today I appear before you to give you a report on the judicial system of the state of Montana, its performance, its strengths and its weaknesses, and to highlight some of the problem areas for your consideration. This report will be in summary form from the prospective of the Chief Justice. More detailed information is available at your request from the office of the court administrator, Mr. Michael Abley.

In the two-year period since I last addressed you, the Supreme Court has heard, processed and concluded more cases than ever before in its history. The reasons for the progressive increase in case filings from biennium to biennium are open to debate. But, it is an established fact that since 1974 case filings in the Supreme Court have approximately doubled. In the last two calendar years, case filings have increased 13-½ percent.

Several years ago, recognizing this trend, the court realized that changes were necessary to enable the court to cope with its burgeoning workload. Accordingly, in 1979 we proposed to this body that the number of justices be increased by two and that support staff be added. This plan was accepted by the legislature and the governor. In January 1981 the two additional justices were seated and the staff hired.

We are pleased to report that these changes have proven effective on a modest scale. Despite a 13-½ percent increase in case filings, the number of pending cases has been reduced approximately 5 percent. The length of time to complete a case has been reduced. A study done by the national center for state courts in 1979 indicated that the average time for disposition of a case from the filing of notice of appeal in the district court to final opinion by the supreme court was 370 days. This is far too long.

In a similar study in 1982, that time had been reduced to 307 days for appeals submitted on briefs and 335 days for appeals heard on oral argument. I don't mean to indicate to you that it takes this long for the justices on the supreme court to make up their minds and write an opinion. A major part of this time lag involves attorneys ordering transcripts from the court reporter, court reporters preparing and filing transcripts, and delays in filing briefs. We have internal operating rules establishing a 120-day period from the date of submission of a case to the filing of the opinion.

On the district court level, approximately 63,500 new cases were filed in district courts throughout the state during the last two calendar years. This amounts to approximately a 6 percent increase over the two prior calendar years. There has been a gradual but steadily increasing disparity between case filings and case dispositions in the district courts in the last 5 years since our court administrator has been keeping these statistics. Each year there has been slightly more filings than dispositions. Annually, this is not substantially significant, but cumulatively it poses a problem.

These problems are accentuated by the unequal distribution of caseloads among individual judges in the various judicial districts of the state.

Presently, the state of Montana is serviced by a total of 32 district judges. The state is divided into 19 judicial districts. Each judicial district is composed of from 1 to 7 counties and is serviced by from 1 to 4 district judges. This judicial districting system has produced unequal distribution of caseloads varying from over 1,450 cases per judge in one district to about 420 cases per judge in another district. It is urgent that this legislature give serious consideration to the judicial redistricting of this state. We cannot utilize our judicial resources effectively without it.

In 1981 I requested the legislature to establish an interim legislative committee to review the judicial district structure and the number of judges needed to handle the workload. The legislature responded by establishing a joint subcommittee on the judiciary for this and other purposes relating to operation of the courts. This subcommittee, chaired by Senator Gary Aklestad, has researched, held hearings and drafted bills which are being submitted to you for your consideration this session. This subcommittee has worked long and hard for the last year and a half and their efforts merit your serious consideration.

In the last biennium the cost of operating the district courts exceeded the allowable county mill levy for district courts by slightly more than 1.8 million dollars. The emergency fund established by the legislature to provide state funding to cover this shortfall covered only about 40 percent of it. To make up the difference, counties had to dig into their general fund. Various proposals for allocating district court costs between the state and the counties will be presented to you during this session of the legislature, ranging up to full state funding of district court operations. A legislative decision on such funding is imperative.

A system of water courts for adjudicating water claims was established by the 1979 legislature. These water courts working with personnel in the department of natural resources and conservation are moving ahead with all deliberate speed to adjudicate over 200,000 water right claims that have been filed. Judge W. W. Lessley of Bozeman is chief water judge for the state of Montana, and Judge Thomas of Havre, Judge Holter of Libby, and Judge Shanstrom of Livingston, are working with him on a part-time basis. The court staff is located in Bozeman under the personal supervision of Judge Lessley who will now devote full time to the task since his retirement as district judge on January 3rd of this year.

For your information the state is divided into four principal drainages or water divisions which in turn are subdivided into 85 river basins from which these water rights claims arise. Preliminary water right decrees in two river basins of the Powder River have been entered following hearings on some 300 objections. Preliminary decrees in late 1984 are anticipated in seven additional water basins.

Chief water Judge Lessley assures me that the water courts are "biased towards action" and will finish their task within the shortest possible time. Judge Lessley will be available and personally appear at legislative hearings relating to the water courts.

I would be remiss if I didn't call your attention to a funding problem in the judges' retirement system. This system is separate from the public employees' retirement system but is administered by the public employees' retirement division of the department of administration. The legislative auditor recently audited this system and his report and recommendations have been distributed to the legislative audit committee for their consideration. In addition to the contents of the report of the legislative auditor, I call your attention to the involuntary retirement of three judges resulting from the recent election and the voluntary retirement of five others effective January 3, 1983. These retirements will put a further strain on the judges' retirement system.

When I spoke to you two years ago, I indicated a definite need for revision and updating of the rules of practice and procedure of various boards and commissions functioning under the supreme court.

In the past biennium the internal operating rules of the supreme court have been revised and adopted. Rules of civil procedure for justice of the peace courts have been promulgated by the commission on courts of limited jurisdiction, chaired by Timothy O'Hare of Lewistown. These proposed rules have been revised, amended and adopted by the supreme court and presently provide uniform rules for the operation of justice of the peace courts in civil cases throughout the state.

The supreme court commission on rules of evidence, chaired by Sam Haddon of Missoula, is submitting proposed legislation to you reconciling conflicts between the rules of evidence and the Montana statutes and related matters pursuant to Senate Joint Resolution 20 of the 1981 legislature.

The Montana constitution provides that the supreme court "may make rules governing . . . admission to the bar and the conduct of its members." Pursuant to this constitutional power, we completely overhauled the qualifications and eligibility for taking the bar examinations, for admission to the bar, for abolishing the diploma privilege, for providing for multi-state bar examinations, raising the fees to cover the costs of administering the bar examination, and provided for an examination on professional responsibility of attorneys as a condition for admission to the bar. This required detailed rules and procedures carrying these substantial changes into effect. This transition has been accomplished and the detailed rules and procedures have been promulgated with the assistance of the Montana board of bar examiners, chaired by Mr. Robert Poore of Butte, and the same have been revised and adopted by the Montana supreme court.

The district court committee, chaired by Justice Sheehy, has supervised the revision of criminal jury instructions for use by the district courts of this state which should be completed and submitted to the supreme court within the next few months.

We are presently reconstituting the advisory committee on rules of civil procedure for the district courts of Montana with a view towards a comprehensive revision of both the rules of civil procedure and the rules of appellate civil procedure.

A system of mandatory continuing legal education for all attorneys practicing in this state has been instituted by the state bar of Montana working in cooperation with the Montana supreme court.

The commission on practice, which is charged with the duty of investigating ethical complaints against members of the bar of Montana, is chaired by Bruce Brown of Miles City. During 1982 this commission received and considered 103 complaints against attorneys in addition to 35 complaints that were pending at the beginning of the year. The statistical results of these complaints are too varied to admit of summary in this report but are available to you in the office of the court administrator. Additionally, this commission is presently engaged in a comprehensive revision of rules relating to its operations and procedures.

Although not directly related to the operation of the courts of Montana, I wish to advise you that the state bar of Montana some years ago established and maintained a client security fund to reimburse clients who have been victimized by thefts by their attorneys. This fund is maintained by annual assessment paid by all practicing attorneys in Montana. The state bar reports that this fund has paid out more than $70,000 during 1982 alone.

The sentence review division of the supreme court is charged with the duty of reviewing sentences imposed in criminal cases. The sentence review division consists of three district court judges appointed for overlapping three-year terms by the supreme court. It is presently chaired by Judge Langen of Glasgow. During the past year this board reviewed 158 criminal sentences imposed by district courts throughout the state and altered approximately half of them.

The judicial standards commission created by the Montana constitution and implemented by the statutes of this state is charged with the duty of investigating complaints against judges, making rules governing its own operation, making recommendations to the supreme court on retirement of judges for disability, and disciplining judges for willful misconduct in office, willful and persistent failure to perform their duties, and habitual intemperance. In compliance with statute, this body has submitted its report directly to the legislature so I will not comment further on their report.

The supreme court has been charged with supervisory duties regarding training programs for county and city judges. A majority of the judges of courts of limited jurisdiction are laymen and not lawyers. During the past biennium, four training sessions for lower court judges have been held with a combined attendance of approximately 500 judges. They are trained in such subjects as unemployment fraud, traffic violations, judicial ethics, contracts, torts and equity, courtroom procedures, new laws, court structure, evidence, small claims, and uniform procedures and budgeting. Additionally during the biennium, eleven district judges attended sessions of the national judicial college for various judicial training.

The state law library under the able direction of Clare Engel reports that there has been a 95 percent increase in its public service function of providing and assisting with legal research to legislators, state officials, attorneys working for various state and county governmental units, the supreme court and its staff and private attorneys. The library now provides Westlaw, a system of computerized research in fulfilling this function. The state law library now has some 63,000 volumes available to its patrons.

The new justice and state library building, authorized by the 1979 legislature, has been completed and occupied. This building houses the supreme court and its staff, the clerk of court and the court administrator and his staff; the attorney general, his legal staff and related services; the state law library and the Montana state library. It is a well-constructed functional building that will serve the people of Montana well for many years to come. An open house and dedication of this building will be held this coming Saturday, January 15, with the open house commencing at 2:00 p.m. and the dedication ceremony at 4:00 p.m. All of you are invited to come over and look over the building yourselves.

I hope this report has given you a general overview of the judicial system in Montana and pointed up some of its problem areas for your consideration. We earnestly seek your help and assistance in those areas subject to legislative control so that together we can provide the people of Montana with a court system able to furnish the prompt, efficient and quality service to which they are entitled.

Thank you.

Joint session adjourned.

House reconvened at 3:50 p.m.

Representative Vincent moved that the committee rise. Motion carried. Mr. Speaker in the Chair.

At 3:30 p.m., the Sergeant-at-Arms escorted the Honorable Senator John Melcher to the rostrum. Senator Melcher gave the following address:

Joint federal-state efforts for Montanans' needs in 4 areas

Joint efforts from state and federal sources must be pulled together to make common sense to get to policies of economic recovery for Montana and the Nation.

There are 4 areas that I want to mention where I hope you will act prudently so that we help as many people as possible, and in turn, I hope Congress and the Administration will use common sense on the Washington end.

People on reduced incomes are hungry — and there is plenty of food in this country.

Our highways need repair and upgrading, and the $100 million per year for obligational authority is better than the $67 million per year that would have been Montana's share prior to the passage of the fuel tax bill. It is past time to make our highways safer. But remember that the fuel tax bill carries with it an unwarranted hardship on truckers — not because of the 5¢ per gallon increase in diesel fuel, but because there are added taxes, the most burdensome being the 8-fold increase in federal highway use tax, which is crippling for truckers whose business is down 50% or more.

The small portion of the total educational costs for school kids that is federal cannot be cut in Title 1, now called Chapter 1, nor can cuts be made in funding of Chapter 2, special education, which should be increased, nor can impact aid be cut. I trust the good judgment of you legislators not to distort the purposes of impact aid in Montana Foundation Program funds. We Westerners in both the Senate and the House have enough difficulty holding onto impact aid funds for those Montana schools where there is a heavy federal responsibility. I joined Senator Baucus in his amendment to restore the correct formula for Montana's share, which should give us up to $3 million more for Montana's schools from funds already appropriated.

I believe common sense will prevail in Washington, despite the Reagan Administration's apparent desire to further cut educational needs. There appears to be a solid bipartisan coalition in the Senate that will hold the line on any further reduction on federal participation in education. I believe I can say the same for vocational education and student loans.

While the weather is balmy here and in most of Montana today, fuel assistance for the low income will be a terrible problem for many Montana households before March. Don't let anything stand in the way of making certain that the full $11.7 million of federal funds are distributed to those in need, so they can stay warm. I am well aware of the increasing costs of heating fuels for most Montanans, and the 17,000 of them who participated in last winter's program may swell to as high as 30,000 this winter.

Returning to the hungry or poorly nourished — with the abundance of food available in this country we cannot allow hunger to become a way of life for Americans who are elderly or unemployed, handicapped or impoverished, and particularly the children of such families.

Over 2 years ago we set in motion a broader distribution of surplus commodities with billions of dollars of dairy products in federal warehouses, and with the revelation by Department of Agriculture officials that it was cheaper for them to distribute the cheese, butter and dried powder milk than to pay the storage costs.

I had anticipated that by now there would be a well oiled mechanism of federal-state distribution, not only to senior citizen centers and school lunch programs, but also to the households of the hungry elderly, those hungry families whose breadwinner is unemployed, to the handicapped, to the Salvation Army, to church food banks, to hospitals and to nursing homes that are approved for Medicaid, and to any other nonprofit group that can effectively and honestly distribute nutritional needs to those in need.

We can afford it — the truth is we cannot afford not to effectively and efficiently meet these needs.

I have written to SRS Director John LaFaver to request more of the dairy products, including dry powdered milk which has yet to find its way through this broadened distribution program into the bodies of the hungry in Montana and which is, as I have said earlier, available not only in quantity but needs to be moved in order to cut federal storage costs. I have asked Mr. LaFaver to broaden the distribution program beyond the senior center nutrition programs and Human Resource Development Councils to other nonprofit organizations, including church food banks, Salvation Army, and county and city agencies.

I believe these are 4 areas of helping ourselves in these tough times to make sure that we do all we can so that individual Montanans and their needs do not fall through the cracks.

Statement of Intent
HB 94

House Bill No. 94 requires a statement of intent because the proposed amendments would provide the Department of Fish, Wildlife, and Parks with the authority to pass regulations on the taking and keeping of raptors for captive breeding purposes.

The reason for the Department to pass regulations controlling captive breeding is to avoid abuses which could endanger the birds captured or in some cases to protect species which are already rare or unusual in Montana. Accordingly regulations may be adopted which would regulate the kinds of raptors which may be captured, the methods used to capture birds, the facilities in which the birds are kept and bred, the times of capture, the kinds of records to be kept regarding the bird, and the qualifications of the people requesting a captive breeding permit.

"16-4-204. Contents of license — posting — privilege — catering endorsement — transfer — expiration. (1) Every license issued under this part shall set forth the name of the person to whom issued, the location, by street and number or other appropriate specific description of location if no street address exists, of the premises where the business is to be carried on under said license, and such other information as the department shall deem necessary. If the licensee is a partnership or if more than one person has any interest in the business operated under the license, the names of all persons in the partnership or interested in the business must appear on the license. Every license must be posted in a conspicuous place on the premises wherein the business authorized under the license is conducted, and such license shall be exhibited upon request to any authorized representative of the department or to any peace officer of the state of Montana.

(2) Any license issued under the provisions of this part shall be considered a privilege personal to the licensee named in the license and shall be good until the expiration of the license unless sooner revoked or suspended.

(3) A license may be transferred to the executor or administrator of the estate of any deceased licensee when such estate consists in whole or in part of the business of selling liquor under a license, and in such event the license may descend or be disposed of with the business to which it is applicable under appropriate probate proceedings.

(4) In the event of a major loss or damage to licensed premises by unforeseen natural causes or in case of expiration of lease of the licensed premises or in the event of eviction or increase of rent by the landlord (in case of rented licensed premises) or in case of proposed removal of license to premises as substantially suited for the retail liquor business as the premises vacated, the licensee may apply to the department for a transfer of the license to different premises. The department may in its discretion permit a transfer in such cases if it appears to the department that such a transfer is required to do justice to the licensee applying for the transfer. The department shall in no event nor for any cause permit a transfer to different premises where the sanitary, health, and service facilities are less satisfactory than such facilities which exist or had existed at the premises from which the transfer is proposed to be made.

(5) Upon a bona fide sale of the business operated under any license, the license may be transferred to a qualified purchaser. No transfer of any license as to person or location shall be effective unless and until approved by the department, and any licensee or transferee or proposed transferee who operates or attempts to operate under any supposedly transferred license prior to the approval of such transfer by the department, endorsed upon the license in writing, shall be considered as operating without a license and the license affected may be revoked or suspended by the department. The department may, within its discretion, permit a qualified purchaser to operate the business to be transferred pending final approval, providing the application for transfer has been filed with the department.

(6) (a) Except as provided in subsection (6)(b), a license may be transferred to a new ownership and to a location outside the quota area for which it was originally issued only when the following criteria are met:

(i) the total number of all-beverages licenses in the original quota area exceeded the quota for that area by at least 25% in the most recent census prescribed in 16-4-502;

(ii) the total number of all-beverages licenses in the quota area to which the license would be transferred did not exceed that area's quota by more than 33% in the most recent census prescribed in 16-4-502; and

(iii) the department finds, after a public hearing, that the public convenience and necessity would be served by such a transfer.

(b) A license within an incorporated quota area may be transferred to a new ownership and to a new unincorporated location within the same county on application to and with consent of the department when the quota of the all-beverages licenses in the original quota area exceeds the quota for that area by at least 25% in the most recent census and will not fall below that level because of the transfer.

(c) For 5 years after the transfer of a license between quota areas under subsection (6)(a), the license may not be mortgaged or pledged as security and may not be transferred to another person except for a transfer by inheritance upon the death of the licensee. A license transferred between quota areas under this section may be held only by natural persons for 5 years following the transfer. For the purpose of this section, natural persons shall not include limited partnerships or other business entities of any kind in which each natural person is not a full participant in the ownership and operation of the business authorized by the license.

(d) Once a license is transferred to a new quota area under subsection (6)(a), it may not be transferred to another quota area or back to the original quota area.

(7) (a) Any all-beverage licensee is, upon the approval and in the discretion of the liquor division, entitled to a catering endorsement to his all-beverage license to allow the catering and sale of alcoholic beverages to persons attending a special event upon premises not otherwise licensed for the sale of alcoholic beverages, such beverages to be consumed on the premises where the event is held.

(b) A written application for a catering endorsement and an annual fee of $250 must be submitted to the department for its approval.

(c) A written application for each event for which the licensee intends to provide catering services, the written approval of the catering application by the sponsor of the special event, and a fee of $40 must be filed with the department at least 10 days prior to the event and shall describe the location of the premises where the event is to be held, the nature of the event, and the period during which the event is to be held. An all-beverage licensee who holds an endorsement granted under this subsection (7) may not receive approval to cater an event of which he is the sponsor. The catered event must be within 100 miles of the licensee's regular place of business. If obtained, the licensee shall display in a prominent place on those premises, the written approval from the department for each event which is catered pursuant to this subsection.

(d) The licensee shall file with each application for an event to be catered a written statement of approval of the premises where the event is to be held issued by the department of health and environmental sciences.

(e) The sale of alcoholic beverages pursuant to a catering endorsement is subject to the provisions of 16-6-103.

(f) The sale of alcoholic beverages pursuant to a catering endorsement is subject to the provisions of 16-3-306, unless entities named in 16-3-306 give their written approval.

(8) Except as above provided, no license shall be transferred or sold nor shall it be used for any place of business not described in the license; provided, however, that such license may be subject to mortgage and other valid liens, in which event the name of the mortgagee, upon application to and approval of the department, must be endorsed on the license.

(9) ~~All licenses shall expire at midnight of June 30 of each year."~~

Section 2. Section 16-4-407, MCA, is amended to read:

"16-4-407. Expiration of licenses. Each July 1, the department shall issue licenses to brewers, wholesalers, or retailers or for the retail sale of alcoholic beverages on an annual basis and at such fees as are prescribed by law, and such licenses ~~shall expire at~~ are subject to suspension or revocation under 16-4-406 after midnight of June 30 of the succeeding year if the annual renewal fees required by 16-4-501 are not paid. 1/24/83

HB 203, do pass. Report adopted.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent

HB 203

A statement of intent is required for this bill because it delegates rulemaking authority to the Department of Health and Environmental Sciences. The purpose of this bill is to authorize the State of Montana to participate in the Northwest Interstate Compact on Low-Level Radioactive Waste Management. Member states agree to adopt practices (primarily on-site inspections) to assure that low-level waste shipments conform to the packaging and transportation requirements of the state where the waste is to be disposed. As a member, Montana will be able to send its low-level wastes to a disposal site in Washington.

The Department of Health already has rulemaking authority (75-3-201(3)(b), MCA) for the regulation of low-level radioactive wastes. This bill makes that existing authority applicable to the implementation of the terms of the Compact. The Department is also authorized to assess fees for the recovery of the costs of on-site inspections. Fees are to be assessed for that purpose only.

HB 214, do pass. Report adopted.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent

HB 214

This bill grants the department discretionary authority to allow mine operators under the Strip and Underground Mine Reclamation Act to file one report for each operation rather than a separate report for each permit. A statement of intent is necessary because the department will be required to amend its present rules concerning annual reports and provide a procedure for determining when the operator is required to file the report. It is the intent of the Legislature to facilitate department review of annual reports and ease the burden of filing reports on operators with more than one permit.

HB 267, do pass. Report adopted.
HB 420, do pass. Report adopted.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent HB 420

A statement of intent is required for House Bill 420 because it adds authority for the Department of Health and Environmental Sciences to adopt rules setting sanitation standards for work camps and youth camps. The law presently allows the department to set standards for trailer courts and tourist campgrounds ensuring a level of sanitation adequate to protect public health. The need for similar uniform state standards for work camps and youth camps has become apparent, largely because such facilities are not uniformly regulated across the state and are subject to local standards ranging from stringent to minimal. Therefore, it is the intent of House Bill 420 to give the department authority to set sanitation standards for both work camps and youth camps which ensure adequate facilities exist for proper sewage disposal, require storage and disposal of solid waste in a manner adequate to prevent contamination and spread of disease, ensure that food is handled and food service maintained in a manner sufficient to prevent food-related illness, ensure that water supplies are adequate and uncontaminated, and define general housekeeping practices needed to ensure sanitation.

HIGHWAYS AND TRANSPORTATION (Abrams, Chairman): 1/25/83

HB 198, introduced bill, be amended as follows:

1. Page 2, line 1.

Following: "fees"

Strike: "for"

Insert: "to recover the cost of"

And, as amended, do pass. Report adopted.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent

HB 198

A statement of intent is required for this bill because it grants rulemaking authority to the Department of Highways to adopt rules setting fees for the issuance of permits to use or occupy state highway right-of-way.

The Legislature intends that the Department have discretion to set such fees. Use of highway right-of-way is a benefit to adjoining landowners as well as other private users. The costs involved in issuing those permits should be borne by those who have the benefit rather than the public at large.

In exercising its discretion the Department should consider such factors as administrative costs, necessary inspections to insure compliance with the conditions under which such permits are issued, and value of the use of which a permit is issued.

The Department should also address whether the permit allows utilization of excess right-of-way or right-of-way along the roadway, and the purpose for which the permit is issued.

The Legislature intends that the fees for permits issued apply only to new permits. The Department shall not use this rulemaking authority as a revenue measure.

Statement of Intent
HB 110

A statement of intent is required for this bill because it grants rulemaking authority to the Montana Historical Society and the Montana Arts Council for the purpose of specifying the criteria the advisory committee shall use when evaluating and making recommendation on cultural and aesthetic grant proposals submitted to the legislature.

It is contemplated that the Montana Historical Society and the Montana Arts Council will adopt rules that specify the following general criteria that the advisory committee will consider in making recommendations:

(1) Quality - ability/experience of project staff; excellence of performers.

(2) Cultural impact - how important is the project to the cultural development of the state? Will the project stimulate a large number of people or a number of communities?

(3) Project diversity - a variety of different interests and disciplines should be served.

(4) Geographical diversity - to the extent possible, the grants should assist the entire state.

(5) Project costs - if grant funds are limited, some preference should be given to projects requiring smaller grants.

(6) Seed money requests - will a grant enable the project or its sponsors to generate other funds or otherwise to make the project self-supporting?

(7) Availability/appropriateness - have applicants attempted to procure other funds? Are there other sources that are appropriate?

(8) Self-help - does the applicant seek full funding from coal tax funds, or has he arranged alternate financing to the extent possible?

(9) Creativity - is the project so innovative, beneficial, and practical that by example it will stimulate other projects?

(1) “Department” means the department of livestock.

(2) “Governing body” means the governing body specified by the form of government adopted by a county.

(3) "Management of vertebrate pests" means the correct identification of a vertebrate pest; recognition of its biological and environmental needs; assessment of the pest's damage, injury, or nuisance to agriculture, industry, or the public prior to selecting and implementing any integrated or individual control methods to reduce, prevent, or suppress such damage, nuisance, or injury; and evaluating the effects of these control methods.

(4) "Vertebrate pests" means jackrabbits, prairie dogs, ground squirrels, pocket gophers, rats, mice, skunks, raccoons, bats, and the following predatory and nuisance birds: blackbirds, cowbirds, starlings, house sparrows, and feral pigeons, when such animals and birds are injurious to agriculture, other industries, or the public.

NEW SECTION. Section 5. Management of vertebrate pests. (1) A governing body may establish a program to manage and suppress vertebrate pests.

(2) A governing body that establishes a program under subsection (1) must cooperate with the department in the management and suppression of vertebrate pests, including cooperation in regard to the department's organized and systematic plans covering methods and procedures to be followed in the management and suppression of vertebrate pests.

(3) A governing body, in cooperation with the department, may enter into cooperative agreements with state and federal governmental agencies, counties, rodent control districts, associations, corporations, or individuals when cooperation is necessary to promote the management and suppression of vertebrate pests.

NEW SECTION. Section 6. Agreements with department. NEW SECTION. Section 7. County vertebrate pest management fund. A governing body that establishes a program to manage and suppress vertebrate pests must establish a county vertebrate pest management fund, from which the governing body may appropriate money for the operation of the program.

Land within a rodent control district may not be taxed in any given year under both 7-22-2222 and this section for the control of rodents as defined in 7-22-2207. Land within a rodent control district may be taxed under this section only a dollar amount that is proportional to part of the vertebrate pest program's projected fiscal year budget which is allocated to the management and suppression of vertebrate pests other than rodents.

(2) The tax provided for in subsection (1) must be collected as other county taxes and credited to the county vertebrate pest management fund.

NEW SECTION. Section 9. Expenditures for supplies and services authorized. A governing body may make necessary expenditures from the county vertebrate pest management fund for equipment, materials, supplies, personal services, and other expenses. A governing body may also purchase vertebrate pest management supplies and equipment for use by cooperating governmental agencies, counties, rodent control districts, associations, corporations, or individuals in the management of vertebrate pests if the governing body charges such users the approximate cost of the supplies and equipment. Receipts from the resale of such supplies and equipment to the cooperating users must be credited to the county vertebrate pest management fund.

Statement of Intent

HB 452

A statement of intent is required for this bill because section 3 grants rulemaking authority to the Department of Commerce.

It is the legislature's intent that the department shall adopt rules setting forth the manner in which an applicant must prove his fitness for licensure and adopt rules specifying the fees authorized by section 7. The department must also adopt rules establishing the date of expiration of all licenses; it is contemplated that these rules will establish a different numerical grouping so that all licenses do not expire on one date. The department shall also adopt rules specifying the form of the license and pocket card. The department shall also adopt, under section 8, rules for continuing education of examiners. The department may, under sections 3 and 15, adopt any or all parts of the Attorney General's Model Rules which satisfy the requirements of section 15. It is the legislature's intent that no other rules than those required by section 15 and as may otherwise be authorized by the Administrative Procedure Act, be adopted by the department to implement this act.

Statement of Intent

HB 464

A statement of intent is required for this bill in that it delegates rulemaking authority to the Commissioner of Insurance in section 5.

Although 33-1-313, MCA, delegates to the Commissioner of Insurance rulemaking authority to effectuate any provisions of the code, as LC 1116 substantively increases this power, a statement of intent is required.

Section 5 empowers the Commissioner of Insurance with the sole authority to regulate the issuance and sale of variable contracts and allows the Commissioner to promulgate rules to carry out the provisions of this bill. The Commissioner's authority to promulgate rules is limited in scope to the following areas:

1. Rules relating to maintaining reserves for guaranteed benefits and funds in a separate account;
 2. Rules relating to valuation of assets allocated to a separate account;
 3. Rules relating to the transfer of cash or securities among a life insurance company's accounts; and
 4. Rules relating to the requirements of doing business under this bill.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent HB 490

A statement of intent is required for this bill because it grants the Board of Architects the authority to adopt rules implementing Title 37, Chapter 65.

Currently, the chapter of state statutes governing the licensing of architects contains no general grant of rulemaking authority such as those available to most other state agencies and licensing boards. The Board of Architects must therefore rely on the grants of rulemaking authority applicable to all boards contained in 37-1-131 which allows only the adoption of rules "governing licensing, certification, registration and conduct of" architects, upon 37-1-136 allowing the board to adopt rules relating to disciplinary action, and upon 2-4-201 requiring every agency to adopt procedural rules. Thus, the board has no authority to adopt rules unauthorized by those sections of law. HB 490 grants the board general rulemaking authority to adopt any rule "necessary" to implement all previously existing statutes contained in Title 37, Chapter 65. Any such rules must be adopted under the Montana Administrative Procedure Act.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent
HB 24

House Bill 24 requires a statement of intent because it authorizes the Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services to adopt rules to implement statutory changes in the delivery of services to youths.

The Legislature contemplates that the rules should address the following, among other things:

1. Consideration of aftercare programs for youth under the department's supervision.

2. Consideration of standards for facilities housing youth in need of care, youth in need of supervision, and delinquent youth. Such standards should be considered in licensing and delivery of service.

3. Consideration of measures associated with the allocation of placement budgets to judicial districts, with such measures including data on placement history and placement trends.

4. Consideration of the proper allocation of annual budgets for the out-of-home care of youth in need of supervision and delinquent youth. The funding formula used in budget allocations should include:

- a. the total population of the judicial district;
- b. the total youth population of the judicial district;
- c. the total number and costs of placements in public facilities and out-of-home care facilities;

d. trends in population, placements, and local economics.

5. Consideration of measures to investigate parental contributions.

6. Consideration of specific measures for licensing the various youth facilities, including: facility acquisition, facility design, group home staffing, staff training, service goals and design, quality of services, client placement procedure, client rights and privileges, client grievance procedure, provider grievance procedure, accounting procedures including accounting of client financial resources, health and safety standards including water and waste disposal, food service, and laundry.

Statement of Intent

HB 480

House Bill 480 requires a statement of intent because Section (2) of the bill provides that the Department of Commerce adopt rules with respect to retention schedules for bank records.

It is the intention of the legislature that the Department of Commerce review with banks and related interests, where possible, problems related to the retention of bank records. In promulgating the rules with respect to this act, the department should take into account the space and record retention limitations of the banks as well as the need to maintain records which may be of importance to bank customers.

And, as amended, do pass. Report adopted.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent
HB 523

A statement of intent is required for this bill because section 7 requires the board to adopt administrative rules.

Subsection (1) of 37-60-202 requires the board to adopt rules specifying the form of various documents granted by the board and the method of taking various licensing actions on the same. The minimum standards for the documents are set out in section 37-60-309 but may include such other matters of identification, such as finger prints, as the board determines to be necessary. The procedures and standards for suspension and revocation of a license, registration, or identification card are set out in 37-60-321. This section facially allows the board to suspend or revoke the registration of an individual for violations by his licensed employee or vice versa. As to those situations involving the suspension or revocation of the document of one party for the actions by another, it is the Legislature’s intent that the board rules governing this matter should only require or allow the suspension or revocation of a document issued by the board if the person or entity whose document is in jeopardy had the right of control over the person or entity whose actions put the document in jeopardy and if the person whose document is in jeopardy knew or should have known of the actions of that other person.

Subsection (4) of 37-60-202 also requires the board to adopt rules prohibiting the establishment of certain branch offices without approval by the board and establishing requirements for board approval. The qualifications that may be required by the board under this subsection may not apply to proprietary security organizations, and may concern such matters as the supervision and management of the office but must not prescribe requirements for office size, equipment, etc.

Subsection (5) requires the adoption of training program rules. It is the intention of the Legislature that these rules specify a minimum curriculum and minimum standards for instructors used in all phases of the program, including firearms instructors.

Board rules adopted under subsection (8) relating to insurance may not require schools to carry insurance to protect themselves against civil liability for negligent or inadequate training incurred after students graduate from the training program.

Board rules defining “unprofessional conduct” under subsection (9) may include only that conduct which has a direct relationship to the ability of the board member or the licensee, registrant, or identification card holder to perform official duties or acts taken in the capacity of a licensee, registrant, or card holder.

Under subsection (11), the board must adopt rules which, at a minimum, provide for a maximum period of time in which employees may be considered to be “on probation” with an employer and for that period only, excused from the requirements for identification or registration cards which would otherwise apply.

HB 345, introduced bill, be amended as follows:

1. Page 4, line 9.

Following: "parts"

Insert: " , not exceeding $30,000 in any fiscal year,"

And, as amended, do pass. Report adopted.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent HB 345

A statement of intent is required for this bill because it grants rulemaking authority to the Department of Fish, Wildlife, and Parks to adopt rules in establishing a reward program to encourage the reporting of game violations by earmarking up to $30,000 a fiscal year of proceeds from the game auctions held by the department.

To administer this bill, the department will have regulations or guidelines which would describe standards for the payments, methods of distributing the rewards, and for protecting the anonymity of people providing information.

HB 434, do pass. Report adopted.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent HB 434

A statement of intent is required for this bill because it grants rulemaking authority to the Department of Fish, Wildlife, and Parks to adopt rules to set deadlines for license receipts according to different classes of license agents, and setting guidelines for allowing alternative forms of security for small volume license agents.

Section 2 of this bill proposes to allow the director of the Department of Fish, Wildlife, and Parks to set deadlines for the license receipts according to different classes of license agents. The intent of this bill is to allow the director the flexibility to recognize that there are widely disparate kinds of license agents. In some sparsely populated areas, the license receipts for a given year are so few that the current monthly accounting requirement may be unrealistic. On the other hand, in heavily populated areas some license agents have extremely high monthly receipts, necessitating that the money be transferred promptly, on a monthly basis, to the Department. The Department contemplates rules that would have deadlines grounded in population base and historical demand in an area.

Section 1 of this bill proposes to change the security requirements for license agents. Currently, the law requires a minimum bond of $1,000. In reality, no bonding company gives a bond for only $1,000. The current industry standard is a minimum of $5,000. Many of the small license agents may carry a total inventory of licenses far below $5,000. In those instances, where the license agent does not stand to make a great deal of money on the license agency, the $5,000 bonding requirement may be unduly burdensome. The proposed amendment would allow the director to adjust the bonding requirement to the particular circumstance of a given license agent. For instance, a license agent with a large inventory would be obliged to provide a bond. A license agent with an inventory of less than $1,000 may be obliged to provide some other kind of security to ensure performance under the law. The Department anticipates promulgating rules that would allow alternative forms of security other than a bond for the small volume license agent.

HB 182

Section 6 gives the Board of Physical Therapy Examiners authority to adopt rules imposing continuing education requirements. The Board is not

- (2) standards for determining programs to be approved for fulfillment of the requirements such as adequacy of facilities, qualifications of instructors, and course content;
- (3) the number of hours of instruction, if any, required;
- (4) the basic content and the procedures and passing grade for any examinations required;
- (5) alternative methods of fulfilling the requirements, if any;
- (6) standards for waiver of the requirements for hardship reasons; and
- (7) methods of monitoring compliance.

2. Written criteria for describing the severity of mental disturbance for which the Home is able to provide treatment.
3. Written criteria establishing the degree of physical disability or acute illness the Home can appropriately accommodate.

4. Procedures that will consider the Home's ability to meet the overall needs of the Veteran.

5. Procedures that will consider the Veteran's gender as it relates to availability of appropriate living space.

6. Procedures that will allow for consideration of the Veteran's ability or inability to locate suitable alternative living accommodations relative to his status on a prioritized waiting list.

Statement of Intent

HB 299

A statement of intent is necessary for House Bill 299 because it grants the Department of Health and Environmental Sciences the authority to adopt, by rule, specific licensing standards for facilities providing nursing care, as well as other services, to the developmentally disabled.

It is the intent of the Legislature that the standards adopted for such facilities be substantially the same as those federal standards contained in 42 Code of Federal Regulations, Part 442, Subpart G, "Standards for Intermediate Care Facilities for the Mentally Retarded". Those standards include necessary administrative policies and procedures; admission and release criteria; personnel policies; resident living standards; requirements for professional and special programs and services; dental service requirements; necessary administrative services; safety and sanitation requirements; required recordkeeping; and requirements for services in the following areas: training and habilitation, food and nutrition, medical services, nursing, pharmacy, physical and occupational therapy, psychological services, recreation, social services, speech pathology, and audiology.

This authorization is necessary to conform with federal law that excludes from the 102-inch width limit safety-related appendages such as rear view mirrors, twin signal lamps, marker lamps, steps and handholds for entry and egress, flexible fender extensions, mudflaps, splash and spray suppressant devices or designs, refrigeration units, or air compressors which the highway patrol may interpret as necessary for safe and efficient operation of commercial motor vehicles.

(1) It is a misdemeanor for a person, firm, or corporation to violate any provision of 61-10-101 through 61-10-110.

(2) However, the operator of a vehicle or combination of vehicles may move over the highways to the first open state scale, permanent or portable, without incurring the excess weight penalties set forth in 61-10-145 if the total gross weight of the vehicle or combination of vehicles does not exceed allowable total gross weight limitations by more than ~~7%~~ 5% and if the weight carried by any axle or combination of axles does not exceed the allowable axle weight limitations by more than 5%. In the event the vehicle or combination of vehicles is not in excess of the allowable total gross or axle weight limitations by more than ~~7%~~ 5%, the department may issue a single trip permit for the fee of $10 for allowing said vehicle or combination of vehicles to move over the highways to the first facility where its load can be safely adjusted or to its destination. Violations of total gross or axle weight limitations in excess of ~~7%~~ 5% are subject to the fines provided in 61-10-145, and all loads in excess of ~~7%~~ 5% of total gross or axle weight limitations must be adjusted or reduced to conform to the size and weight limitations before the vehicle or combination of vehicles is moved from the point of weighing.

(3) An operator of a vehicle or combination of vehicles subject to the provisions of 61-10-107(2) may move over a highway, except any highway which is part of the federal-aid interstate system, within a 50-mile radius of the harvested field to the point of first unloading, without incurring the excess weight penalties set forth in 61-10-145 if the total gross weight of the vehicle or combination of vehicles does not exceed allowable weight limitations by more than 20% per axle but the maximum load per inch of tire width may not exceed 670 pounds. The vehicle or combination of vehicles may not exceed 40 miles per hour. No single trip permit as required in subsection (2) shall be applicable to such vehicle or combination of vehicles. The intent is to provide the Department with the authority to adopt those rules necessary to administer the Rangeland Improvement Loan Program. This authority is limited by Section 7 to adopting rules prescribing the form and content of applications for loans and the required conservation plan; to adopting rules governing the application, implementation, and interpretation of the criteria for awarding loans and of the procedure for the review of applications by conservation district supervisors, the committee, and the department; to adopting rules providing for the servicing of loans including arrangements for obtaining security interests and the establishment of reasonable fees or charges to be made; to adopting rules providing for the confidentiality of financial statements submitted; and, to adopting rules describing the terms and conditions for making loans.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent
HB 545

This bill requires a statement of intent because section 9 requires the Department of Agriculture to adopt rules to implement the collection of an assessment on wheat and barley and reimbursement from the proceeds of the assessment to producers who suffer a loss because of bankruptcy or wrongful disposition by grain dealers of grain delivered to them. Rules adopted under this act should parallel rules adopted to implement the Wheat Research and Marketing Act, insofar as the two programs are similar.

Statement of Intent

HB 559

A statement of intent is required for this bill because section 1 grants the Secretary of State the authority to adopt rules prescribing the information and graphics to be printed on both the envelope in which a ballot is mailed to an elector in the United States service and the return envelope. Rules are to be adopted under the Montana Administrative Procedure Act.

The Legislature intends that this grant of authority to adopt rules be used only to eliminate inconsistencies that now exist between the specifications established in 13-13-214(4) and existing requirements of federal law. The rules adopted must be consistent with regulations established by the federal election commission, U.S. postal service, or other federal agency. The rules must allow for mailing and return of the ballot free of U.S. postage if that is permitted by the U.S. postal service. The rules may not require information and graphics which are not specifically required by the regulations of a federal agency.

Statement of Intent
HB 615

A statement of intent is required for this bill because it grants rulemaking authority to the Board of Land Commissioners for the issuance of waivers of civil penalties for minor violations of the Strip and Underground Mine Siting Act.

Section 1 of the bill allows the Board to adopt rules concerning the issuance of waivers for civil penalties if the underlying violation does not pose potential harm to public health, public safety, or the environment or impair administration of the Act. It is the legislature's intent that the Board's rules prescribe specific criteria that will be used by the Department of State Lands in determining whether or not a violation poses potential harm to the public health, public safety, or the environment or threatens to impair the administration of the Siting Act. The rules must also establish a procedure for the issuance of waivers which must include a requirement that the Department of State Lands give notice of the violation and waiver to the permittee and place such notice in the permittee's file kept by the department.

"39-71-401. Employments covered and employments exempted. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the Workers' Compensation Act applies to all employers as defined in 39-71-117 and to all employees as defined in 39-71-118. An employer who has any employee in service under any appointment or contract of hire, expressed or implied, oral or written, shall elect to be bound by the provisions of compensation plan No. 1, 2, or 3. Every employee whose employer is bound by the Workers' Compensation Act is subject to and bound by the compensation plan that has been elected by the employer.

(2) Unless the employer elects coverage for these employments under this chapter and an insurer allows such an election, the Workers' Compensation Act does not apply to any of the following employments:

- (a) household and domestic employment;
- (b) casual employment as defined in 39-71-116(3);
- (c) employment of members of an employer's family dwelling in the employer's household;
- (d) employment of sole proprietors or working members of a partnership other than those who consider themselves or hold themselves out as independent contractors;
- (e) employment for which a rule of liability for injury, occupational disease, or death is provided under the laws of the United States;
- (f) any person performing services in return for aid or sustenance only;
- (g) employment with any railroad engaged in interstate commerce, except that railroad construction work shall be included in and subject to the provisions of this chapter.

(3) A sole proprietor or working member of a partnership who holds himself out or considers himself an independent contractor must elect to be bound personally and individually by the provisions of compensation plan No. 1, 2, or 3, but he may apply to the division for an exemption from the Workers' Compensation Act for himself. The application must be made in accordance with the rules adopted by the division. The division may deny the application only if it determines that the applicant is not an independent contractor. When an application is approved by the division, it is conclusive as to the status of an independent contractor and precludes the applicant from obtaining benefits under this chapter."

And, as amended, do pass. Report adopted.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent
HB 277

Under the law in effect prior to the enactment of this act, independent contractors were exempt from coverage under the Workers' Compensation laws. Many times, the determination of whether a worker is an independent contractor is made after a worker, for whom no contributions have been made, is injured and files a claim. This act provides a method for a before-the-fact determination of the independent contractor status. The act is not intended to make independent contractors subject to the Workers' Compensation Act but requires that they apply for that status to be exempt.

This bill authorizes the Division of Workers' Compensation of the Department of Labor and Industry to adopt rules to implement this act. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Division will provide an application form and provide for a hearing if the applicant disagrees with the Division's initial determination. Any substantive rules adopted pursuant to this act must be consistent with the statutory definition of "independent contractor".

SPECIAL ORDERS OF THE DAY

The Honorable U.S. Senator Max Baucus gave the following address:

Speech by Senator Max Baucus
before the Montana State Legislature
February 11, 1983

Mr. President, Majority Leader Hazelbaker, Minority Leader Blaylock, members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, thank you for the opportunity to return to the Legislature today.

A full decade has passed since I took a seat as a newly elected member of the Montana Legislature. Some faces are no longer around. Some familiar faces that were fresh and new in 1973 show a little more wear and experience. And some faces, like the distinguished Speaker of the House, are even a bit fuzzier!

A Shared Legacy

Though the times have changed, and some faces are different, this Legislature continues to be a vivid reminder of our political roots — a reminder of what can be accomplished by a forward thinking, common sense approach to government.

We Montanans looked to the future and wrote an extraordinary new Constitution.

We save for the future with a Coal Tax Trust Fund.

We conserve for the future with strong environmental protection laws.

We build for the future with a solid economic development program.

These accomplishments are this Legislature's legacy — a source of pride in our State and a reminder of the potential of responsible government.

Our shared legacy, however, has a dark side which we remember all too well. Joseph Kinsey Howard captured that part of our legacy in his book Montana: High, Wide and Handsome.

The underlying theme of Howard's book is that too often Montana has not been the master of its destiny, but a helpless victim.

We know the litany well:

The Copper Kings suffocated competition and sucked the mineral wealth dry.

The railroads colonized their right-of-ways and then callously exploited the land and its people.

Wall Street lured farmers with easy money and then swallowed them up in hard times.

A Voice in Our Future

But the copper collar is broken. Today we are not silent partners in shaping our nation's future or our state's future. We insist on being active in building Montana and America. In 1980 Ronald Reagan promised Montanans that we would play a role in moving government in the right direction and restoring prosperity.

The President pledged to bring federal deficits under control.

The President outlined a "New Federalism" that would lead to a stronger role for state government.

And the administration proposed a "Good Neighbor Policy" to redefine the relationship between the federal government and Western states.

These were policies that we all hoped would benefit Montana and the rest of the country. Two years ago, in the spirit of cooperation, we decided to wait and see.

Well, we have waited and, sadly enough, we have seen.

Perhaps no federal policy has had a more devastating impact on Montana than this administration's economic program.

The 1981 tax cut provided some needed relief, but went way too far, and has certainly not brought prosperity to Montanans.

Just last night in Butte, I spoke to a woman with three young children whose husband is unemployed. I felt her panic. SHE knows it's gone too far.

I listened to Union leaders. The copper collar may be broken, but they still feel the pinch — THEY know this administration has gone too far.

In Billings at a Social Security forum, I could see the frustration in the eyes of the elderly, who are trying to just get by. THEY know this Administration's policies are not working.

Crippling interest rates and unprecedented deficits have depressed the housing industry and the auto industry and cut deeply into the heart of Montana's economy.

38,000 Montanans wait in line at employment offices. 38,000!

Ask any farmer who can't afford to buy a tractor, but can't afford to be without one.

Ask any logger who's spent more time recently indoors than outdoors.

Ask any carpenter whose hammer has been resting in his tool box.

Meanwhile, you in the Legislature have the unfortunate task of grappling with a federal budget so tight that cutbacks are the order of the day.

Once again Montanans are the victims of decisions made thousands of miles away.

The "Good Neighbor" Policy

As if the federal economic policy was not difficult enough, we also have had to deal with federal land policy. Uncle Sam is the largest landowner in the state. Our federally owned timber, coal and grazing land is vital to this state's future.

Because of our historic problems with the Federal Government, Secretary Watt's announcement of a "good neighbor" policy was as welcome as a rainstorm in a drought.

Uncle Sam has been anything but a "good neighbor".

But saying you are a good neighbor doesn't make you one. In fact, under Secretary Watt's leadership the federal government is acting more like an arrogant absentee landlord than a neighbor.

Let's look at a few examples.

Public Land Sales

The administration's "privatization" policy is the most blatant. With its eye on some 35 million acres of public lands for sale to private buyers.

Uncle Sam would collect some $17 million.

Sounds like one way to cut the deficit. Or is it?

Ranchers facing tripled grazing fees, if stripped of their leases on public rangelands, don't think so.

Hunters facing "No Trespassing" signs don't think so.

Landowners facing depressed values due to a glut on the real estate market don't think so.

Selling massive chunks of federal land is grossly shortsighted. Public resources that are critical to the future of Montana would be sold at rock-bottom prices to a handful of big corporations.

Montanans have seen that kind of greed before.

Energy Giveaway

The Powder River Basin coal sale is another example of the Good Neighbor Policy gone wrong.

Brushing aside the concerns of communities throughout Eastern Montana and Wyoming, the Department of Interior held the largest coal lease sale ever on April 28, 1982.

The bidding was predictably low.

The average bid was only 3.5 cents a ton.

These bargain basement bids may have surprised the Department of Interior, but they didn't surprise us. With enough federal coal leased to last from now to the end of the century, Montanans could have predicted the results.

We always lose when speculators are allowed to play fast and loose with our natural resources.

Water Resources

The federal government, unfortunately, has been far less enthusiastic when it comes to water resource development.

The administration claims that in 1982, "we made great progress in ensuring proper investment and management of the West's water resources."

But the record tells a different story. For example, when the dust settled, the Water Resources Council had been put out of business, leaving state officials across the West wondering how to influence water management in the future.

Furthermore, the Administration has not sent Congress its promised cost-sharing proposal for investment in water projects.

The Sensitivity of a "Good Neighbor"

Talk is cheap. Criticism is easy. And reasonable people differ on such complicated public policy issues.

But much is at stake here. Secretary Watt has crossed an important line. He is violating our most basic western value: protecting our natural resources from wanton misuse.

We must end the folly of massive public land sales. I will introduce a resolution calling on the President to revoke his Executive Order on these sales.

I, for one, am prepared to absolutely resist recently introduced legislation that would rob Montana of its legitimate right to levy a reasonable coal severance tax.

In addition, we must resist the needlessly hostile and provocative attitude of Jim Watt toward Congress, conservationists and the public, and continue to make it clear to Jim Watt that he is not going to push the people of Montana around.

Conclusion

These are challenging times. And the opportunities are great.

We have met the challenges before. And if we work together with our shared passion for the state we love, we can do it today.

We will only achieve our goals if there is a partnership between states and the federal government. The Montana Legislature can lead the way.

I believe in the people of Montana and I know you do too.

Working together we can live up to the challenge and the trust they have placed in us.

Montana's Bud Guthrie believed in Montanans, — believed in you — and said it well:

"Here in the Mountain West, space and nature shape us. Despite our differences, we are made a hopeful people, as the mountain men and the overland travelers and yesterday's homesteaders were hopeful. As the gold seekers and the mining magnates and the cattle kings were hopeful. Not always honest, mind you, not always capable or wise or successful, but almost always hopeful and hence astride of life."

Thank you.

Statement of Intent

HB 493

A statement of intent is required for this bill because it grants rulemaking authority to the Department of Administration for the purpose of implementing the procurement procedures established by the bill. The bill is based upon the American Bar Association Model Procurement Code for State and Local Governments. The Model Code was drafted on the concept that it should be a short statute providing the fundamentals of sound procurement that should be implemented by rules consistent with the statutory framework.

It is intended that the Department look to the Recommended Regulations for the Model Procurement Code for State and Local Governments adopted by the American Bar Association for guidance in adopting rules implementing the provisions of this bill.

Statement of Intent

HB 284

Section 4 requires the Board of Social Work Examiners to adopt rules setting professional, practice, and ethical standards for licensed social workers, establishing continuing education requirements, and adopting such other rules as are necessary for the regulation of licensed social workers. The Legislature perceives a need to regulate persons holding themselves out as having a master's degree in social work or using the title of master of social work. Consumers of social worker's services are entitled to adequate regulation of those services in the public interest. It is contemplated that the Board may promulgate rules that:

- (1) protect the public from abuse of the trust placed in social workers;
- (2) regulate the day-to-day practices of licensed social workers;
- (3) ensure a professional attitude and professional work in a professional atmosphere;
- (4) regulate fees charged for services;
- (5) regulate testing devices and methods used by licensed social workers;
- (6) regulate counseling techniques;
- (7) determine the type, amount, and quality of continuing education of licensed social workers; and
- (8) are otherwise necessary to the regulation of the profession.

Statement of Intent

HB 402

A statement of intent is required for this bill because it delegates rulemaking authority to the Department of Fish, Wildlife, and Parks. Section 2 of the bill authorized the department to make rules concerning disabled persons and exemptions to fishing and game bird license requirements.

The legislature contemplates that the rules should address the following subjects as well as others:

(1) A definition of "disabled" as it applies to persons meeting license requirements for fishing and hunting game birds;

(2) Documents that would, of themselves, be adequate certification of disability.

Statement of Intent

HB 714

A statement of intent is required for this bill because it grants rulemaking authority to the Human Rights Commission in section 2.

The intent of this bill is to eliminate a confusion which now exists between the Human Rights Act and the Governmental Code of Fair Practices by establishing general consistency in the enforcement of these two chapters by the Human Rights Commission. Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature that the rules adopted by the Commission under the Governmental Code of Fair Practices be modeled after and be as consistent as practicable with the rules adopted by the Commission under the Human Rights Act.

Statement of Intent

HB 359

A statement of intent is required for this bill because it grants the Department of Labor and Industry rulemaking authority concerning child labor regulation. This bill intends that the Department adopt rules insuring that each child have an opportunity to work while at the same time protecting the child's physical and moral well-being and the educational process. The Department may look to the federal law which this act is modeled after for guidance in promulgating rules.

Statement of Intent

HB 655

It is intended by this bill to amend Section 50-76-101, MCA, to exclude from the provisions of Title 50, Chapter 76, line trucks and bucket trucks engaged in the maintenance or repair of existing facilities. Such trucks engaged in new construction are not excluded.

Because line trucks and bucket trucks are similar to other equipment included in this chapter, it is necessary to define and distinguish them. These trucks are not exclusively used for maintenance or repair and may be adapted for new construction.

The Division of Workers' Compensation is delegated the rulemaking authority to define the vehicles and exclude those intended by this amendment.

1. Page 8, line 5.

Following: "within"

Strike: "30 days"

Insert: "6 months"

And, as amended, do pass. Report adopted.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent
HB 624

It is the purpose of this act to permit qualifying homeowners to defer payment of property taxes on their homes. The state pays the tax to the county involved and has a lien against the property for the amount paid. The ability to defer taxes is granted to both real property owners and mobile homeowners who meet the qualifications set forth in the act. The act will be effective for property taxes which become due after its passage and approval.

The Department of Revenue is designated as the administering agency. It is the intention of the Legislature that the Department use as much of the current mechanism for determining eligibility for class 4 property tax relief as is practicable in order to determine eligibility for tax deferral. However, the Department is to keep a register of those properties upon which tax has been deferred and develop a central accounting and notification system. Since deferral of tax places a cloud on the property owner's title, the Legislature specifically requires those who wish to avail themselves of tax relief under this act to take the affirmative action of reapplying each year.

The rules to be adopted by the Department under the authority granted in this act should set forth the details of the procedure for determining eligibility and should also state a procedure for payment of deferred tax. The emphasis should be on making it simple for the eligible taxpayer to avail himself of this program.

The payments to local governments are designed to assure that they do not suffer any revenue loss under this tax relief program.

HB 312

The Department of Institutions is requesting legislation that would allow the state and counties to develop a comprehensive long-term plan rather than the annual plans now required under 53-24-204 and 53-24-211.

Under section 53-24-211, the Department has existing rulemaking authority regarding the submission, approval, and disapproval of plans. The Department is requesting statute authority that would allow long-term state and county comprehensive plans. The only new rules the Department will adopt under this bill will be dates for submission and updating county plans.

These existing rules that the Legislature has allowed are:

- (a) submission dates for the county alcohol and drug plan, and
- (b) the approval date by the department, or notice of disapproval.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent
HB 699

A Statement of Intent is required because Section 2 delegates to the Board of Dentistry power to make rules for the implementation, continuation, and enforcement of all sections within Title 37, chapter 4. This provision is intended as a backup to the various provisions giving the Board rulemaking authority over portions of the chapter as are found in 37-4-301 (examination criteria for dental license), 37-4-307 (dentist license fees), 37-4-321 (defining unprofessional conduct), 37-4-402 (examination criteria for dental hygienist license), 37-4-406 (hygienist license fees), and 37-4-408 (scope of duties of dental assistants). This is consistent with authority delegated to most other professional licensing boards. Section 2 grants the Board the authority to interpret or implement other parts of the chapter that are not covered by existing delegation. The Board shall be bound by statements of intent adopted in 1979 for these other sections and may not use Section 2 for rulemaking authority when a more specific delegation suffices.

Sections 4 and 8 give the Board authority to adopt rules imposing a demonstration of continued competency for license renewal. The Board is not required to adopt such rules. It is contemplated that a study will be conducted to review other existing program designs in determining a viable means of demonstrating continued competency.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent

HB 691

A statement of intent is required for this bill because it grants rulemaking authority to the Board of Athletics. Qualifications for licensure to conduct boxing or wrestling events or to act as a referee, manager, or judge should be based primarily on particular knowledge required for the particular license and the integrity of the applicant, as indicated by past activities. To this end, the rules should address means of determining knowledge and integrity, such as affidavits or references evidencing experience and good reputation in the particular field.

The Board should also look to the regulations established by the World Boxing Association for guidance.

The intention of the legislature is that the Board may not meet within 48 hours of any wrestling or boxing match or exhibition over which it has jurisdiction.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent

HB 689

It is the intent of the Legislature to create a Commission on Ethics and Political Practices to take the place of the Commissioner of Political Practices.

It is intended that the duties of the Commission include those duties presently assigned to the Commissioner. It is not the intent of this bill to expand the powers of the Commission beyond those powers currently granted to the Commissioner in the areas of lobbyist regulation and campaign finance.

It is intended that the duties of the Commission include those duties presently assigned to the Secretary of State in the administration of Title 2, chapter 2, part 1. It is intended that the powers of the Commission in this area are limited to those specifically granted in this bill. It is intended that the Commission not have the authority to hold hearings or conduct investigations of any kind regarding the behavior of any public official or employee.

It is intended that the penalties contained in this bill are applicable to all public officials and employees, whether their functions be legislative, judicial, or executive.

It is intended that the portions of this bill revising the code of ethics in the areas of ethical standards, disclosure requirements and mechanics, and the advisory opinion function, apply only to executive branch officials and employees at the state and local level. This is intended because ethical provisions regarding the judiciary are already in place and because it is the intent of the Legislature, after review, to implement its own conduct review and disclosure requirements and mechanics.

It is intended that the Commission will study the laws given to it to administer, particularly the code of ethics, and reports to the Legislature at the next legislative session or subsequent sessions any changes it wishes to recommend.

It is intended that any study or review of the code of ethics and any legislation recommended by the Commission be limited to those standards or mechanics that apply to executive branch officials and not include provisions which apply to members of the Legislature.

It is intended that the authority given to the Commission in section 26 of this bill to hire and fire all personnel under its supervision not be used to fire any of the personnel currently employed in the office of Commissioner of Political Practices, unless there be good and sufficient cause to do so.

A Statement of Intent is required for this bill because section 8 grants the Commission the authority to adopt rules for the conduct of its affairs under the code of ethics. It is intended that the authority to adopt rules is specifically limited to the areas provided for in section 8. Rules are to be adopted under the Montana Administrative Procedure Act. The rules regarding advisory opinions must be consistent with sections 9 through 14 of this bill. It is intended that the Commission may not, by rule, provide for any hearing or investigation of any kind regarding the behavior of any individual.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent
HB 638

A statement of intent is required for [House Bill 638] because it gives rulemaking power to the commissioner of insurance. In section 5, the commissioner is authorized to establish rules to determine if a health or medical insurer is meeting his contractual obligation in a timely manner, to provide for administrative penalties against insurers who fail to fulfill those obligations, and to make the determinations necessary for insured persons whose benefit payments are unnecessarily delayed to be eligible to collect interest on the late payments.

HB 752, do pass. Report adopted.

2/17/83

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent
HB 752

A statement of intent is necessary for this bill because it grants rulemaking authority to the Department of Commerce for the purpose of establishing standards for operating efficiency for appliances whose use requires a significant amount of energy on a statewide basis.

It is the intent of the Legislature that the Department of Commerce adopt standards that conform to any standards that may be adopted by the Pacific Northwest Electric Power and Conservation Planning Council.

The Legislature also directs the Department of Commerce to take steps necessary to secure Montana's standards against preemption by the U.S. Department of Energy under a "no-standard" standard, as proposed in recent federal regulations.

HB 817, do pass. Report adopted.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent HB 817

A statement of intent for this bill is necessary because section 3 grants the Department of Administration the authority to adopt rules to equitably administer the employee pay-for-performance bonus program.

It is contemplated that the rules will address the following:

(1) professional standards for equitable performance appraisal and recipient section procedures which must be met before any agency may implement this bill;

(2) the maximum size of the monetary pay-for-performance bonus which an employee may receive. It is intended that the award be large enough to be of significance, so that it will motivate employees but no larger than necessary to satisfy that purpose. However, the amount of the bonus may not exceed $250;

(3) the maximum percentage of eligible employees in each agency which may receive a monetary performance award in one year. It is intended that this percentage reasonably reflects the percentage of state employees who exhibit superior performance—that it not be so large as to award average performance and that it not be so small as to be out of reach of an "average" employee who through extra effort performs at an above average level. Initially it is intended that monetary awards will be limited to 5% of eligible employees;

(4) procedures for the review of employee concerns regarding the administration of the program;

(5) procedures to maintain the integrity of the program through the review of agency performance appraisal and performance awards procedures.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent
HB 701

A statement of intent is required for House Bill 701 because it grants rulemaking authority to the department of commerce to set assessments for state banks, trust companies, and investment companies.

It is the intention of the legislature that in the promulgation of the rules, the department will conduct hearings in an attempt to assure that the affected institutions will have the opportunity to voice their views. It is the intention of the legislature that the department should attempt to create rules for assessment which provide equitable treatment of institutions insofar as possible, while maintaining the mandate of the bill.

HB 814, do pass. Report adopted.

HUMAN SERVICES (Hart, Chairman):

2/18/83

HB 580, do pass. Report adopted.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent

HB 580

A statement of intent is needed for House Bill 580 because it grants the Department of Health and Environmental Sciences express authority to adopt enforceable, binding rules setting safety standards for public swimming pools and bathing places.

The department presently has the authority to ensure that public swimming pools and bathing places are safe. However, the section of the law granting it authority to make binding rules relating to swimming facilities omits mention of safety standards. Therefore, the rules the department has adopted to indicate the safety measures it considers necessary to protect public health are not legally binding, except in regard to pools in hotels, motels, or roominghouses, for which the department has separate regulatory authority under other statutes.

Therefore, it is the intent of the legislature that the Department of Health and Environmental Sciences have express rulemaking authority to adopt binding safety standards for swimming pools and bathing places, including construction specifications and operational requirements such as lifeguards.

An offender is considered to have been previously convicted for the purposes of this section if less than 5 years have elapsed between the commission of the present offense and a previous conviction. Statement of Intent
HB 879

House Bill 879 requires a statement of intent because it grants rulemaking authority to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the purpose of developing rules and guidelines to eliminate sex discrimination in the public schools of Montana.

Section 3 of House Bill 879 mandates rulemaking to eliminate sex discrimination in the following areas: public school employment; counseling and guidance services; access to course offerings; and recreational and athletic activities. With respect to selection of textbooks and instructional materials in section 3, subsection (5), the Superintendent of Public Instruction would develop guidelines to implement the act but would not be required to state such guidelines as administrative rules.

Section 4 directs the Superintendent of Public Instruction to adopt rules for enforcement of the act, for establishment of a compliance timetable, and for procedures for districts to file assurances of compliance with the rules implementing the act. It is contemplated that the provisions of section 4 would be set forth as administrative rules. It is envisioned that the Superintendent will use the compliance guidelines of the federal Title IX regulations whenever it is appropriate and efficient to do so.

HB 774, introduced bill, be amended as follows:

1. Page 5.

Following: line 1

Insert: "(5) A person who has been a resident of the state of Montana for 6 months prior to [the effective date of this act] and who during that time has been principally engaged in the profession of court reporting and has been practicing continuously as a shorthand reporter must, upon application therefor and payment of the required fee, be issued a certificate without examination if application for the certificate is made no later than 6 months after [the effective date of this act]."

And, as amended, do pass. Report adopted.

Committee attached the following statement of intent:

Statement of Intent

HB 774

A Statement of Intent is not required for this bill. However, one was prepared because the bill grants rulemaking authority to the Montana Supreme Court for the purpose of establishing a program of certification of shorthand reporters.

Section 1 authorizes the court to adopt rules to implement the act. Section 3 authorizes the court to appoint a three-member examining board to conduct the examination of applicants for certification under rules adopted by the court. Section 4 authorizes the court to determine the amount of compensation to be received by the board. Section 6 authorizes the court to administer the court reporter certification examination. Section 8 authorizes the court to renew court reporter certificates annually upon payment of a fee set under section 9. Under section 9, the court may set various fees to fund the administration of the act.

It is the intent of the legislature that the court adopt all rules necessary to establish and administer a program of certification of shorthand reporters. A program that will ensure the proficiency of court reporters will be a benefit to the judicial system of the state. It is the intent of the legislature that the court limit its rulemaking authority to the administration of the certification program, including setting standards for suspension and revocation of certificates, and that the court not adopt rules requiring certification as a condition of employment of court reporters by the district courts.

It is the intent of the legislature that the duties of the board appointed under section 3 be limited to duties associated with conducting the examination of applicants for certification and duties associated with certificate revocation and suspension proceedings.

It is the intent of the legislature that all fees prescribed by the court under this bill be commensurate with cost.

It is the intent of the legislature that in enacting rules to implement section 8, the court set standards for renewal of a certificate when more than 5 years have elapsed since expiration of the certificate, including provisions for reexamination of the shorthand reporter.
